As for the crop movement, receipts at the ports and many of the interior towns were lower than expected, doubtless due to scarcity of cars, as exporters are known to have purchased enormous lines of staples for shipment during the next three months. The inability of railroads to meet the demands of shippers bids fair to be an important factor in the near future.

Wall street appeared quite conspicuously as a buyer of the winter months; the South purchased the late deliveries.

Farmer Fatally Injured.
Taylor, Texas, September 19.—About 6 o'clock this afternoon, while John Schumers, a German farmer, was engaged in the work of German farmer living east of Taylor, was returning home from the city in his wagon, the vehicle was struck on the Fourth street crossing by the southbound Missouri, Kansas and Texas local freight train and demolished. Sommers' right arm and leg were cut off at elbow and knee and his body thrown about 100 ft. east of the railroad.

otherwise mutilated. It is not believed he will survive the injuries.
